Nelson Tasman to feature on Sky TV this Sunday

The Nelson Tasman region will feature on Destination New Zealand on Sky's Living Channel this Sunday.

The filming of the travel series, fronted by former Shortland Street actress Miriama Smith, was coordinated by Latitude Nelson. Filming took place in February and the show has already been screened in Australia.

The programme showcases a range of the region's tourism operators, including Abel Tasman Sailing, Simply Wild, Neudorf Vineyards, Seifried Estate, The Lodge at Paratiho and Koata Gallery.

Destination New Zealand will screen on the Living Channel, Sunday at 7pm.
